'Traditional Crafts Need to be Revived'

MADRAS, Feb. 16.

The fine collection of terracotta from various parts of India on display at the Lalit Kala Gallery shows the artistic traditions of the country. The Crafts Council of India, a voluntary organisation which has organised the show, deserves all assistance from the Government, Mr. Sadiq Ali, Tamil Nadu Governor, said here on Saturday declaring open the exhibition.

The Governor presented the 20 artisans who had come from all over the country with a lace, cloth and a terracotta bell.

Smt. Rukmini Devi, President of the Crafts Council, paid tributes to the superlative skill of the artisans who had attended the workshop.

A short 'Tala Vadya Kutcheri', consisting of about 10 'ghatam' players of the Sri Ganesh Tala Vadya Vidyalaya, Triplicane, conducted by T. H. Vinayakaram, was appreciated by the Governer.

The Governor released an illustrated brochure entitled 'Terracotta', prepared by the council. The display of the elegant terracotta pieces was done by Mr. Dasarath Patel, noted artist and Chandralekha, danseuse.

Mrs. Radha Paniker welcomed the gathering.

The Hindu/16-02-1981/9